School Books.

A meeting is called for the School Book Board of this county to convene at Wayne on the 16th inst. The object of this meeting is to adopt school books for the free schools of the county to contract with publishers to furnish them at a uniform contract price and to secure as liberal exchange prices as possible, where there is a change made in a text book. The interest of the taxpayers of our county and the future welfare of our schools are largely in the hands of the Board, which fact makes it the duty of said Board to be careful and painstaking in all of its deliberations. There is opposition among some of the citizens to any change of the text books, however much the interests and future welfare may demand it, on account of what they seem to think a gigantic expense, which, they contend, will necessarily be the result of a change in text books. It is well for us to consider the situation from all of its standpoints before we fully make up our minds to condemn or approve an action. Say, for example, that the Board would feel it its duty to change the series of readers. The first thing to do would be to find a better series, the next to get the books cheaper if possible, and last to secure liberal exchange prices. When our term of school begins the teacher makes out a list of books that each pupil needs and in nearly every instance you will notice that the pupil who has a second reader will need a third and so on throughout the series. If there is no change made you will be required to pay full price for your third reader. If there is a change made you can take your old second reader, however dilapidated it may be, and get, say 40 to 50 % off, giving you an opportunity to realize something from a worthless book that would, otherwise, be cast away.

The condition of our schools and the standing among other schools five years from now depends very largely upon the action of the Board next Friday or Saturday. If we move along and keep our place with the onward stride of progressive educational work and advanced methods we must adopt and use text books that keep pace with the onward movement. It is, therefore, to be hoped that the Board will not be handicapped in the discharge of its duty by the hobgoblin expense when so much depends upon a right solution. A prominent educator of the county informs us that he has taken the pains to ascertain from a sufficient number of families to use as a basis for calculation, in order to make an intelligent estimate of just what the expense would be. He finds that an absolute change in all of the text books to be adopted this year would not cost more than twenty-five cents per family for a period of 5 years, just 5 cents a year for each family. Now this is a fair estimate as can be easily seen by any one who will take the pains to inquire a little and figure diligently.

Let us all be in favor of anything that will further the interest of the public schools of Wayne county and tend to push them to the front rank.

THE Charleston Mail says: "It seems that a great mistake has been made in the selection of the Board of Regents of the Normal schools of the State. Governor Atkinson selected a board which was supposed to be Republican as far as three-fifths of the members were concerned, but the truth is, there are two Democrats, two Republicans and one independent Republican who has been voting with the Democrats in the election of Principals for the various schools. At the conclusion of its session, it announced its bitter, partisan Democrats as Principals and one Republican."

WILLIAM J. BRYAN remarked in his Los Angeles address that he had been the Moses of the democratic party. Mr. Bryan probably referred to the fact that Moses was allowed to look over into the promised land, but not to enter.—Wheeling News.

The Senate adopted the Tariff Bill by a vote of 38 to 28, after six weeks' debate.

ALLEN O. MYERS has been expelled from the order of Elks.

Peabody Scholarships.

Competitive examinations for scholarships in the Peabody Normal College, at Nashville, will be held July 22 and 23, 1897, as follows: For First Congressional District, in the office of Hon. H. W. Harmer, Clarksburg. For Second Congressional District, in the High school building at Martinsburg. Examination conducted by A. B. Carman. For Third Congressional District, in the public school building, at Hinton. Examination conducted by W. E. Lowe. For Fourth Congressional District, in Marshall College, at Huntington. Examination conducted by L. J. Corby, of Marshall College.

The qualifications for becoming a competitor for a scholarship are as follows: The applicant must not be less than seventeen years of age, nor more than thirty; of irreproachable moral character; in good health with no physical defects, eccentricities, or habits which would interfere with success in teaching; and must take a pledge of intent to teach for at least two years after graduation.

The use of tobacco in any form is a disqualification for a scholarship.

Applicants for appointment to these scholarships will be examined in English Grammar, English Composition, United States History, Geography, Arithmetic, Elementary Algebra, Geometry, (two books,) and Latin, (Beginners Latin Book.) They will also be examined on Irving's Tales of a Traveler, Eliot's Silas Marner, and Scott's Woodstock.

The appointments are not made by congressional districts. The seven applicants making the best grade will receive appointments.

J. R. TROTTER,
State Supt. of Free Schools.

Rather Strange.

The strangest political freak that ever occurred even in the freakish politics of West Virginia, was when T. C. Atkeson, of Putman, was elected Professor of agriculture at the West Virginia university at Morgantown recently by the regents at a salary of $1,600 per year. He was once a democrat, then a Greenbacker and is now one of the strongest exponents of free silver. The question now naturally arises what will he be from now on? C. C. Brown another free silver democrat, has been re-elected secretary of the state board of agriculture. He is a cousin of Prof. Atkeson, and it gives him a nice salary for the amount of work done and the time used.—W. P. Vicars in Charleston Mail.

The New Tariff Law.

Which has just been signed by the President, may be appropriately considered an Industrial Declaration of Independence. An official text of the law has just been published by the American Protective Tariff League, and should be carefully examined by every citizen. Protectionists ought to have a few copies of this law for distribution. Five copies will be sent to any address for ten cents. Ask for Document No. 30 and address W. F. Wake-man, Gen'l Sec'y, 135 West 23d Street, New York.

MR. J. SLIDELL BROWN, President of the West Virginia Editorial Association, has completed arrangements for the Association to visit the Nashville Centennial. The members of the Association are to meet at the Palace Hotel in Cincinnati on the 20th inst. and will leave the following morning for Nashville. The trip will last about one week. If nothing happens to prevent "we'll be there."

"July 18, 1896, our store, four dwelling houses and three barns were washed away by a flood. Soon after the community was visited by an epidemic of bloody flux. In a short time we sold ten dozen of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in every case where it was used the results were all that could be desired; in fact our physicians admitted that it would do more toward bringing about a cure of flux than they could do"—Bush & Knisley, Auburn, W. Va., Oct. 8, 1896. For sale by W. M. Bloss, Ceredo, and Williams & Campbell, Kenova.

Wright is all Right.

Daniel Wright has been appointed postmaster at Ceredo. We suppose Mr. Wright is all right, but the turning down of Colonel Thomas T. McDougal was a great wrong. He deserved the place, and Congressman Miller should have recognized his claims.—Parkersburg Sentinel.

DUNLOW.

An Up-to-Date Town—The Best Business Point in Southern West Virginia.

Cor. Charleston Mail. Dunlow, W. Va., July 7.—One of the busiest as well as the most beautiful towns, along the Norfolk & Western Railway, in Southern West Virginia, is Dunlow, forty-six miles distant from Kenova. The Greear Co., dealers in general merchandise, making a specialty of furniture, have a mammoth store, well kept, carry an immense stock and do a large business. The handsome W. J. Finke and S. D. Brindle assist Robey L. Greear in conducting the business of the Greear Company.

Messrs. Copley & Thornbury, dealers in general merchandise, crockeries and stoves, are prospering beyond measure. Their large and increasing trade make it necessary to double the capacity of their large store house. J. W. Pinson has the contract and is pushing the work vigorously.

Dr. J. H. Thornbury, who is one of the most successful physicians in Southern West Virginia, enjoys a lucrative practice, and has done much to build up the town. Dr. Thornbury is also postmaster at Dunlow. The handsome and accomplished Miss Janie Thornbury, one of Dunlow's fairest flowers, is assistant postmistress.

J. D. Atkins is a leading barrister here. He is kept quite busy attending to the interests of his numerous clients.

James Napier, J. P., is a terror to evil doers and does much to make the people in his jurisdiction more law abiding. He is a just justice. Hotel Dunbar, Ira Smith, proprietor, is first-class in all its appointments. The building is a large three-story structure and contains seventy rooms well furnished. The popular host and hostess have much praise from the traveling public.

Dunbar has water works. The supply comes from a large reservoir of pure spring water, located high upon the hill opposite the town.

Dunlow Lodge, No. 141, I. O. O. F., has a magnificent hall, which cost over $2,300. The lodge is in a flourishing condition.

Pine Grove Castle, No. 21, K. G. E., is another one of Dunlow's secret orders.

Dunlow Council, No. 76, O. U. A. M., was instituted here quite recently by W. V. Fraeborn, State Organizer.

R. K. Currie, station and express agent, is one of the most efficient and popular employees on the N. & W. line.

The people of Dunlow celebrated the glorious Fourth Saturday and your correspondent never saw more patriotism manifested anywhere than he witnessed here. Dunbar Lodge, No. 141, I. O. O. F., and Pine Grove Castle, No. 21, K. G. E., had a parade at 10 o'clock, a. m., and returned to the Odd Fellows' Hall where a very large crowd had assembled. Rev. R. Woods of Huntington, delivered a very beautiful address to the audience on "Odd Fellowship," which was well received by all. J. T. Graham, of Wayne, delivered a Fourth of July oration. B. J. Prichard, of Wayne, made a brief speech, and the assembly was dismissed. The members of the two orders banqueted the vast multitude. At night a big ball was given which was a very creditable affair. The largest crowd ever seen in Dunlow was here Saturday. The very best order was had. It was a glorious demonstration where patriotism and peace reigned supreme.

A mountain maiden came to Dunlow Saturday and deposited a love letter to "John" in a letter box where the post-office was kept during the Cleveland administration. She subsequently walked into Copley & Thornbury's store and observed that the whole outfit of the Dunlow post-office except the late postmaster and the letter box where she planted "John's" letter, was in a new location and she exclaimed to the immense crowd in the store, "Why, law me! Dunlow has two post-offices!" Monday evening Albert Smith, who owns the building where the late post-office site was, happened to find "John's" letter and turned it over to Dr. Thornbury, the newly appointed postmaster. It has been learned that the letter was of vast importance because its contents would make "two souls with but a single thought, two hearts beat as one," on Thursday of next week.

Messrs. Stone and Strolling, who live in Boone county, have commenced a three years' timber contract near this place. A tram road will be constructed and a steam locomotive will be used to haul the timber to Twelve Pole. A very large force of men are at work and it is thought that the road will be completed soon.

The people here have suffered greatly from the heat, but there have been no prostrations as yet. Miss Minta Williams, of Thacker, who has been visiting here for the past two weeks, has returned to her home.
